

LOCAL NEWS.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 6.

For this section clearing weather, with a coming northwest cold wave.

THE R. & D. R. R.—The Richmond and Danville stockholders' meeting was adjourned over in Richmond, yesterday, by Secretary Brooke to the twelfth—next Tuesday. The rumor of a new year-day about a sweep in the Richmond and Danville system lacks confirmation. On the other hand, says the Richmond State, it is stated positively by people in close association with the New York directors that Capt. W. H. Green, the present general manager, will not be re-elected. It is believed that his powers will be extended under the financial reorganization of the properties. One thing is evident to the public: Gen. T. M. Logan has great influence over Gen. Samuel Thomas, the controlling stockholder of the Terminal, and General Logan is a strong friend of General Manager Green. As stated about two weeks ago, Gen. Thomas is to be president of the Terminal, vice J. H. Iman.

The New York Herald of to-day says: Another step was taken yesterday by the Brice-Thomson faction in the Richmond Terminal toward perfecting their own plan of providing for the immediate needs of the system. A paper was circulated among the prominent directors and stockholders for subscriptions to a fund for the liquidation of the $500,000 floating debt of the Richmond and Danville, and more than the required sum was obtained. Among the plans discussed, and one especially favored by those now in power in the Richmond Terminal for the reorganization is a proposition to wipe out the Terminal, which does not own a rod of track, and to reorganize it under another name. Then it is proposed to lop off smaller branches and to make it an operating system with the Richmond and Danville, from Richmond to the Mississippi river, with the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia and the Georgia Central as its feeders. As the Terminal owns the stock in these roads it is claimed the project is feasible. The Terminal preferred stock will in that case be taken care of. If this scheme goes through, President Iman will probably resign as president of the Terminal. It is also probable that he will consent to a re-election as president of the Richmond and Danville if a close union of the Terminal and the Danville is near at hand.

BILLS INTRODUCED.—Hon. E. E. Meredith, representative of this Congressional district, yesterday introduced bills in the House to pay Mount Holy Baptist Church, Fauquier county, $1,200 for use and occupation by federal troops during the war; to pay Sarah A. Swartz, executrix of B. T. Swartz, $6,012, found due by the Court of Claims; to pay Joseph Redfern and E. J. J. Redfern $7,388.40, for the use of buildings by the Signal Service, and to pay John W. Fairfax $2,100, the amount for which his real estate was sold in 1864 by order of Judge Underwood. He also presented a number of bills proposing to repay his constituents for stores and supplies furnished the United States army during the late war, as follows: Albert Wren, Fairfax county, $5,000; Mary Shriver, Fairfax county, $3,000; Harriet Burke, Fauquier county, $25,000; estate of Wm. G. Davis, Fairfax county, $10,000; Amelia A. H. Richards, Fairfax county, $15,000; estate of James Taylor, Fauquier county, $3,510; estate of Alexander Pound, Loudoun county, $13,000. He also introduced a bill for the relief of John T. Henderson, who paid the illegal commercial agents' tax and introduced this for the relief of William Bashby, Lewis McKenzie, Sewell B. Corbett, and Theodore Todd, Elizabeth Ann Oge, Isaac Oyer, C. F. Sweetman, and B. D. Leon, and Beckley Howard introduced during the last Congress by Gen. Lee. Mr. Meredith also introduced the omnibus bill for the relief of a large number of citizens of Loudoun county, which was introduced last session. He also brought forward again the Maddox claim, which once passed both houses of Congress and was vetoed by President Cleveland. It proposes to pay to Laura E. Maddox the amount alleged to be due the late Joseph H. Maddox for the delivery of tobacco.

PERSONAL.—Reports from Mexico state that the Iuribide family is allied with the clericalists in the revolutionary movement and that Prince Iuribide is an avowed candidate for the Presidency against Diaz. Prince Iuribide, who is well known here, and who is now in Washington, denies all knowledge of the reports.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Mertie McCracken, of New Orleans, and Mr. J. W. Seward, of Petersburg, which is to take place in the former city on the 12th. Miss Friend last night entertained a number of her friends at a delightful dinner given at the residence of Miss Mahaffey, on Duke street.

Miss Nannie Milton and Miss Annie Kirkour, of Loudoun, are visiting Mrs. Emil Schell on Prince street.

Mr. M. B. Harlow, treasurer of the German and Perpetual Building Association, last night handsomely entertained the directors of these associations and a number of his other friends at his residence on Alfred street. A number of happy speeches were made during the evening.

Mr. James Keogh, of Roanoke, is in the city on a short visit to his many friends here. Miss Kate M. G. Johnston, one of Alexandria's most beautiful and accomplished belles, who is spending the winter with friends in Baltimore, spent yesterday and to-day at her home in this city. She returned this evening to Baltimore where her attractions have won her many admirers.

HYDRAULIC S. F. E. CO.—The sixty-sixth annual meeting of this company was held last night. President Richard L. Carver in the chair. One member was transferred from the trial to the active roll, and another dropped, not having uniform within the ninety days allowed. Six young men were nominated for membership. The following officers were unanimously elected for the ensuing year: viz, Richard L. Carver, president; Charles Goodrich, 1st vice-president; Robert Grosau, 2d do; Henry A. Downham, secretary; S. Robert Sherry, recorder; George W. D. Cressler; George W. Petty, foreman; Wm. H. Tassapah, assistant foreman; Henry A. Downham, commander of bees. The foreman was requested to appoint Messrs. Charles H. Smith, Edward Sarratt, J. Wm. Kell, Herbert Price, George Norris, and George T. Ward, pipemen. The following resolution was unanimously adopted: viz,

Resolved, That the thanks of this company are due, and are hereby tendered Mr. Wm. R. Bonz, engineer, and Mr. Thomas D. Dix, driver of this company, for the faithful and efficient manner in which they have discharged their respective duties.

INSTALLATION.—District Deputy Grand Master Wm. E. Latham, of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, assisted by members of that Lodge, installed the following officers of Saratoga Lodge, I. O. O. F., last night: N. G. W. N. Brisey; F. S. E. T. Teale; treasurer, J. T. Boyd; R. S. to N. G. W. D. Zimmerman; J. L. S. to N. G. W. Shetwood; Warden, J. M. Luckett; conductor, J. W. J. filler; chaplain, J. Oriz; R. S. to Wm. Bonham; L. S. S. to J. A. Sorence; O. G. P. to W. Simpson; L. G. F. F. H. S. to V. G. L. H. McDaniels; L. S. to V. G. C. Hutchins. The officers of Potomac Lodge, I. O. O. F., will be elected and installed on Friday night.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and snow began falling at 11 o'clock. There were two prisoners and several lodgers at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases: Albie Johnson, colored, for stealing money from Alexander Rev, colored, was fined $10 or given 60 days in jail. Rose Quander, colored, who escaped from the work house, had her time extended 30 days. Geo. Blackburn, colored, charged with stealing $50 from Mildred Johnson, was dismissed. John Pettit, charged with stealing a pair of pants from the house of Ed Beach, where he had been allowed to sleep Monday night, was locked up.

Warrants have been issued against all persons who are conducting business without license.

THE MUSICAL.—That Alexandria has a large number of music loving people is attested by the audiences that have crowded Sceptia Hall at each of the twenty-nine complementary rehearsals given by the Alexandria Musical Association. That of last night was a creditable entertainment, and those present were well pleased. The programme, of ten numbers of bright music, well rendered, made the rehearsal of sufficient length to satisfy everyone. Mr. W. E. Cooper was the instrumental soloist on the flute. He played "Come to Erin" with full orchestra accompaniment, which won for him a hearty encore. The association's sixth annual meeting for the election of officers for 1892 takes place to-night.

OLD CHRISTMAS DAY.—"Epiphany," or "Twelfth Day," or "O Christmas Day," was celebrated to-day in some of the churches in this city by special services. It is known in the Christian year only as Epiphany, the word signifying "appearance," and it is a festival of the church in commemoration of the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles, or more expressly to the three wise men, or Magi, of the East, who came, led by the star, to worship Him immediately after His birth. It gives the name to an important season in the church year, reckoned as Sundays after Epiphany.

THE WEEK OF PRAYER was continued in the Second Presbyterian Church last night. The topic to-night will be "The Family and the Young."—Praise for the gracious promise to the godly and their children and for the increasing number of young disciples. Prayer for a deeper sense of the sacredness of the family relation; for invalids and the aged; for sons, daughters and servants; for the consecration of sons to the ministry; for Sunday schools and all Christian associations for young people; for public schools and all educational institutions.—Ps. cxviii. Col. iii. 1: 16-25. Isa. xlvii. 1-4.

U. S. CIRCUIT AND DISTRICT COURTS.—Judge R. W. Hughes presiding.—The grand returned true bills against Louis Brill and T. B. Hurst, for selling liquor, the former in Fairfax county and the latter in Loudoun county, without license, and against J. E. Thomas for illegally distilling liquor in Northumberland county. The grand jury was then discharged.

The petit jury was called and adjourned till to-morrow at 11 o'clock. Malone Wheelless vs. Wheelless Electric R. R. Co.; motion to dismiss denied. Court adjourned till to-morrow.

PROPERTY SALES.—Miss Katie M. G. Johnston, of this city, has sold her fine farm in Fairfax county, below this city, containing 548 acres, to Mr. Clarence Baker, of Norwalk, N. Y., for $23,568. Mr. S. B. Stottsburgh, of this city, has purchased the commercial property, near Annapolis, Fairfax county, for $2,500. The sale was made through Capt. F. Beattie.

SNOW.—Last night about 11 o'clock a northeast snow storm set in, which continued till about day light this morning, by which time the snow had attained a depth of about 3 inches. The wind blew quite a gale early this morning and the snow was followed by rain. The temperature being mild much of the snow melted this evening.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The opening of the stock market this morning was made at irregular changes from last night's figures, but a firm to strong temper marked the early dealing. Richmond and West Point reached 16 against 14 1/2 last evening. The improvement in the others was fractional. There was the usual diminution in business toward the end of the hour, with some concession in prices, though Richmond and West Point was held at the best figures throughout. At 11 o'clock the market was still active and firm at about the best prices.

Flour is steady and the demand is considered very fair for the season, as a dull period usually follows the holidays. The wheat markets are somewhat firmer, but the improved tone is entirely confined to choice milling wheats, with a range for all sorts of from 75 to 100 per bushel, as to condition of sample offered. Corn is dull and lower; most of the receipts are damp and would not bear storing in bulk; sales at 47a49; no old crop was sold to-day. Rye 75a85. Oats 40a43. Eggs are declining—20a21—and slow of sale. Butter 15a23. Pork 4a6, latter for very small, well-cleaned Hogs. Poultry, Mutton, Beef, Potatoes, Onions, Apples and other produce are without change. Hay and Millfeed are active. Straw is easy.
